Fall Meeting Agenda

9:30 – 10:00 Registration, Refreshments and Welcome

Phil Snider (Lawrence Park Collegiate Institute), President of the Ontario Classical Association, will provide a brief welcome and introductory remarks to this year's meeting.

10:00 – 10:30 Presentation of Revised Curriculum

Margaret-Anne Gillis (Innisdale Secondary School) will review the updated Classical Studies and International Languages, Grades 9-12, curriculum document recently released by the Ontario Ministry of Education. She will discuss revisions to the document and how these revisions will effect teaching and learning at the secondary level, and the broader impact for secondary and post-secondary education in Classics.

10:30 – 11:15 Preview of Teaching Resources

Elizabeth Ellison (Elmwood School) will present a selection of teaching resources, created specifically with the new curriculum in mind, and available for all teachers of Classics. This will include a range of podcasts, PowerPoint slides, and videos in the areas of archaeology, numismatics, personal adornment, and spectacle and entertainment.

11:15 – 11:30 Morning Break

Enjoy an assortment of wonderful refreshments, included with your registration.

11:30 – 12:00 Annual General Meeting

Members will discuss current business, including membership and new Board / Advisory positions. Please be sure to attend!
During this time, non-members can enjoy refreshments and visit the book display.

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch Break

Enjoy a delicious lunch, included with your registration.

1:00 – 3:00 Putting the Curriculum into Practice

This session will include a series of pedagogical workshops, with presentations and activities, run jointly by teachers and professors, in the areas of critical literacy, material culture, metacognition, and orality. Presenters include: Diana Pai (St. Clement's School), Maggie Rogow (North Toronto Collegiate Institute), Philip Snider (Lawrence Park Collegiate Institute), Sean Corner (McMaster University), Claude Eilers (McMaster University), and Jennifer Moore (Trent University). Participants are also welcome to share their classroom activities in these areas.

Book Display: Our book display will feature a wide selection of books on Classical topics. Those attending can add to their Classical library, purchasing resources useful to their teaching and research.

THE OCA FALL MEETING PROVIDES TEACHERS, PROFESSORS, AND UNIVERSITY CLASSICS STUDENTS WITH A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY TO COME TOGETHER TO DISCUSS TOPICS AND ISSUES OF COMMON INTEREST. IT HAPPENS ONLY ONCE A YEAR - DON'T MISS OUT!
